Memorandum

Date: November 20, 2012

To: Honorable Chairman Joe A. Martinez and Members, Board of County Commissioners

From: Carlos A. Gimenez
Mayor

Subject: Resolution Authorizing Execution of Amendment No. 1 to Cruise Terminal Agreement between Miami-Dade County and Prestige Cruise Holdings

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that the Board approve the accompanying resolution authorizing the execution of Amendment No. 1 ("Amendment") to the Cruise Terminal Agreement ("Agreement") between Miami-Dade County ("County") and Prestige Cruise Holdings ("PCH").

SCOPE

PortMiami is located within District 5 – Commissioner Bruno A. Barreiro. The impact of this agenda item is countywide as PortMiami is a regional asset and generates employment for residents throughout Miami-Dade County.

FISCAL IMPACT/FUNDING SOURCE

This Amendment continues to provide PCH with preferential berthing rights at PortMiami's Terminal J while providing a minimum annual guarantee of no less than thirty (30) vessel calls per fiscal year (an increase from 12 guaranteed vessel calls in the current agreement). The increase of PCH vessels is due to its commitment to move Regent Seven Seas Cruises to PortMiami from Port Everglades. The Amendment is expected to generate more than $1.7 million of revenue throughout its initial three year term.

PCH revenue to the County in Fiscal Year 2012 was $400,300, which accounted for 13 vessel calls. Anticipated revenue from PCH for FY 2013 is approximately $585,000.

TRACK RECORD/MONITOR

The Seaport Department staff members responsible for monitoring the Amendment and Agreement are Juan Kuryla, Deputy Port Director, Kevin Lynskey, Assistant Port Director, Business Initiatives, and Hydi Webb, Business Development Manager.

BACKGROUND

Prestige Cruise Holdings is a privately-held holding company operating two luxury cruise brands – Oceania Cruises ("Oceania") and Regent Seven Seas Cruises ("Regent"). Headquartered in Miami-Dade County, PCH operates a fleet of 8 vessels between its two cruise brands.

Oceania, an upper-premium cruise brand, has been home porting seasonally from PortMiami since 2003 with a series of 10-, 11-, and 12-day itineraries to the Caribbean and Panama Canal. In February 2011, Oceania inaugurated the company's first newbuild vessel, Oceania Marina at PortMiami. Its most recent newbuild vessel,

Oceania Riviera, will be arriving at PortMiami on November 29, 2012 for its Caribbean inaugural season.

Regent is an all-suite, luxury brand which has traditionally home ported seasonally in Port Everglades and offers longer cruises to the Caribbean. After operating its sister company out of PortMiami for nine years, PCH has committed to move its Regent brand to Miami for the first time in company history. Thus, both cruise brands will be Miami-based beginning November 2012, adding passenger choices for luxury and upper premium cruise brands. Additionally, this year PCH moved its Regent office headquarters from Fort Lauderdale to Miami-Dade County.

Oceania has operated from Miami-Dade County with a series of short-term agreements approved by the Board since 2003 as follows:

- October 7, 2003, the Board approved Resolution R-1093-03, which authorized the execution of a Cruise Terminal Agreement ("CTA") between Miami-Dade County and Oceania for a period of two (2) years, from October 1, 2003 through September 30, 2005.
- September 8, 2005, via Resolution R-1042-05, the Board approved Amendment No. 1 to the CTA which authorized an extension of the term for another two (2) years through September 30, 2007.
- January 10, 2008, the Board approved Resolution R-39-08, which approved Amendment No. 2 to the CTA, extending the term for another two (2) years through September 30, 2010.
- November 16, 2010, via Resolution R-1129-10, the Board approved the execution of a new contractual agreement between the County and Prestige Cruise Holdings for a three (3) year term with up to two (2) additional terms of one (1) year at PCH's option (Oceania and Regent were acquired by PCH - a subsidiary of Apollo Management Company - in 2007 and 2008, respectively).

The current Agreement has been beneficial to both parties as it has provided the Port with guaranteed passenger volumes and revenues while granting PCH preferential berthing and incentive rates over the past two years. However, responding to the opportunity to home port Regent in Miami, the proposed Amendment No. 1 to the Agreement is respectfully recommended for approval.

Under the terms of the Amendment, PCH commits to home port PCH vessels at PortMiami a minimum of thirty (30) calls each fiscal year. PCH will further commit to having Miami as the exclusive home port for both Oceania vessels and Regent vessels in South Florida (Palm Beach, Broward, Monroe, Brevard, and Miami-Dade counties). PCH will not home port an Oceania or Regent vessel in another South Florida port throughout the term, unless PortMiami is unable to provide PCH with a suitable terminal for the date(s) requested. The County will continue to give PCH preferential berthing rights at Terminal J.

As an incentive to attract the Regent brand to Miami-Dade County, PCH will pay the County in accordance with new Tariff rates for Small Passenger Vessels. Small Passenger Vessels are defined as multi-day passenger vessels having an overall length of less than 800 feet. This new definition and rate structure for Small Passenger Vessels is being presented under separate cover for Board consideration. Should the Board approve these items, PCH will pay the new dockage and wharfage rates for Small Passenger Vessels. Such dockage and wharfage fees will continue to increase annually three percent (3%) each fiscal year throughout the term.

The initial term of the Agreement shall be amended by this First Amendment to add an additional two years from the effective date of the Agreement. Thus, the initial term shall now expire three years from the effective date of this Amendment. PCH shall have the option to request an extension of this Agreement for up to two (2) additional terms of one (1) year each. If PCH exercises such option, the County and PCH shall negotiate mutually-agreeable terms of the extension and such extension would be brought back to the Board for its consideration.

PCH's impact to Miami-Dade County has grown significantly due to its commitment to homeport its two cruise brands at PortMiami for ship operations, in addition to consolidating the brands' office headquarters to Miami-Dade County. The presence of Oceania and Regent at the Port will solidify Miami's offering of upper-premium and luxury cruise brands while continuing to support our community with additional revenue.

To accommodate the deadlines and commitments associated with this Amendment, the resolution incorporates language to establish the effective date as the earlier of (1) ten (10) days after the date of its adoption unless vetoed by the Mayor, and if vetoed, shall become effective only upon an override by this Board, or (2) approval by the County Mayor of this Resolution and the filing of this approval with the Clerk of the Board.

DELEGATED AUTHORITY

In accordance with Section 2-8.3 of the Miami-Dade County Code related to identifying delegation of Board authority, there are no authorities beyond that specified in the resolution which include the authority for the Mayor or designee to execute the Amendment.

NOW, THEREFORE, and in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements herein contained, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:
